The backbone of a school is the student. . .one who works hard to give the school a good reputation.

A group of students cooperating as a class can achieve tremendous spirit and progress.

The Spur staff takes pleasure in paying tribute to such a class.

Cheryl
Lots of luck
in the future. mac is a nice guy
Have fun
Bob Tanner

Cheryl,
You look cool on the following pages and the pictures of the talent shows keep up the good looks & you'll be in pictures.

FOOTBALL

The Colts finished the 1962 season with a 4-5-0 record over-all and a 3-2 league record, good for fourth place. The Colts displayed much more spirit than in past seasons and their fine play attracted the largest crowds Parkway has had.

The Colts were led on offense by All-Conference back Terry Plunkett. Terry tied for fourth in district scoring with 72 points. He carried the ball for 1,478 yards, averaging 6.1 yards per carry. Ray Doerr carried the ball for 422 yards, averaging 5 yards per carry and Gary Barnett averaged 7 yards per carry in gaining 211 yards. Bill Weinberger, an All-Conference defensive back, averaged 6 yards per carry. The Colts had much depth in the backfield with Bob Powell, Joe Hart, Chip Dunne and Jerry Suddreth being used frequently. The team as a whole averaged 4.8 yards per carry, a remarkable achievement.

On defense, the Colts were led by co-captain Glenn Hollenberg and Don Weber, who was in his first year of football. Both were named to the All-Conference defensive team as tackle and linebacker, respectively. Glenn also made the All-Conference offensive team, along with guard Larry Arft. Don led the team in tackles and assists. Other linemen who gained honorable mention were John Farnham and Terry O'Neil at ends, Bruce Roman at tackle, and Jon Phelps, Gary Atkinson and Dale Hollenberg at guard and center.

The Colts had trouble starting, losing their first three games to tough opponents. In their league opener and Homecoming, the Colts edged Clayton in a 14-6 thriller. The Colts then beat Wellston and Pattonville before losing their first league game to Berkeley. In the championship game against Brentwood, the Colts saw a 13-7 halftime lead vanish as Brentwood pushed across two touchdowns in the final quarter to win the Little Six Championship, 20-13. The defeat tumbled the Colts from a first place tie to fourth.

Jack Quinn, Dan Deschamp, Gene Mauldin, Lee Moody, and John Kelly made up the starting five for Parkway. Deschamp and Mauldin carried the scoring load for the Colts, averaging 15 and 16 points a game, respectively. Al Schuerman, Terry O'Neal, and Marc Goldfarb saw much action in relieving the first string.

Highlight of the season was a 62-48 victory over the Ladue Rams. The Colts, owning a slim 25-24 halftime lead, came back in the second half to sweep the Rams off the court. Fine team effort helped the Colts win. Two of the most exciting games were a 56-55 victory over Fairview and 60-57 over St. Charles in the regular season's final game. Inexperience was a factor in losing some games, plus the fact that the Colts were playing a tough schedule.

(Reserved) Please! Hi
MAC

Dear Cheryl,

Today was one of the most happiest days of my life untill you left. Then it fell out from under neath me as it usually does.

Honey I feel right now like saying "I DO." and I would to if we were old enough & would have a decent chance in this world.

But 2 years will go fast I hope. Then I will have you for my very own for ever & ever to eternity & I mean a number We will have little one's & I mean a number like enough for a baseball team. Well you know

Love always
Max
